Karen: For god's sake, you're overdrawn again.

How in did you go through $1000 in 10 days?

me: mostly rent, gave Chris cash for him to give check to landlord me: still got most of the rest in cash me: will make a deposit later today, Straub is bringing me some money me: sorry about that

Karen: But my concern is a) you didn't check to see you were overdrawn and b) you didn't tell me me: I didn't know, must have overdrawn last night, hadn't checked my account this morning

Karen: You should have check it BEFORE you withdrew. That's my point. Other people don't have their mother's savings accounts as backup.

me: I know, I'm sorry

Karen: You just don't ever seem to learn from your past mistakes, that's what concerns me most.
